CRIMINAL COURT-JUSTICE OLIN. The trial of Cephas Jones, colored, indicted or amaniting and ravishing Mbs Florence P mith fifteen years of age, in November last, wa

Smith, afteen years of age, in November last, was resumed yesterday morning.

The Government, having rested the day previous, the defense, represented by Mr. A. A. Birney, made their opening, in which it was demonstrated that they intended to set up an offid.

The first witness examined was Dr. J. A. Tarkington, as to the likely appearance of a min after it said in lawe done. Dr. R. Foster confirmed the statement of the previous witness.

Charlotte Norfon lived in the neighborhood where the outrage was committed. She saw the prisoner on that afternoon about four clock. He saw to the house and remained there until the portioner Poney out the back door.

She could not tell the hour of the evening that she sent the man way. She did not know that any crime had been committed until, when looking out of the door to see her Matilda (the faughter) come home, the saw the crowd, and then know that a SOMETHING HAD GONE WRONG.

of the door to see her Matilda (the daughter) come home, she saw the crowd, And then know that SOMETHING HAD GONE WHONG.

Emma Norton, daughter of the previous witness, came home the svening of the trouble at six ociock and found Jones and others in the home. He never left there until the officers came along, and then he put on his cost and went out, conting back in a few minutes, saying the police were look ing for Frank Jackson. He afterward left by the back door, in company with Anthony Toney. His clothes were perfectly clean and there was not a particle of muck on them. He afterward the by the back door, in company with Anthony Toney. His clothes were perfectly clean and there was not a particle of muck on them. She east that Jones was fixed up; right microand that she was the perfect of the was married man, but heard that he was litting with a woman while intimate with her. It was supply when he left the house, but what was the hours she could not tell.

Maggic Norton, another of the same family, gave testimony similar to that of her sister. On cress-camination she controlled the further and said she did not go up stars three times that olght, not have the bound at all until Jones was end sway.

The production is all until Jones was end sway, on the night of the assault at the house of Mrs. Norton. He went in between fifteen and twenty minutes and six a clock, and found Jones in there at the time. They came out together, but the time. They came out together, but the Loys fight of JONES in the alley, and while he was standing on the back step he heard some person jump over the fence and ran at Marion Butler's back dowr.

On cross examination he said that he did not consulted, and the crowd was atanding out of the corner at the time he went into the house. He had Officer Block two days after the affair that he could not do Jones any good, for the people were availed there before he saw him in Mrs. Norton's house. He set his mother-in-law's clock back the night from wenty minutes after to twenty minute before six o'clock, as the Jold woman said that I was too fast, and it was exib by that clock when he first saw Jones in Mrs. Norton's, the correct time being 7:69 in m.)

Sile said that the reason she called Jones' name when the officers came to her house was to save her hisband, and she was surry that she did no. The other witnesses called and examined were Mrs. Fumphery, Henry Pumphery, B. B. Hay, B. Y. Henley, E. Eckloff, C. C. Eckloff, William H. Smith, John Collins, and Maria Hepeigs. Most of these witnesses were called as in character, ment of the Government, and was followed by Mr. E. A. AND LINE.—The advantage of this compound over the plain Oil is find the induseating usets of the Oil is entirely as the conformed of the Oil is controlled. The forester tasks of the Oil is long acted as a prominent objection to its use; but in this form the trouble is entirely obvisice. A host of certificates might be given here to testify to the excellence and superse of "Wilboys Cod Liver Oil and Lime." But the fact that it is regularly preseribed by the medical faculty is sufficient. For
